COURSE DESCRIPTION

A PRACTICAL GUIDE TO THE RED FLAGS RULE – AFIP Executive Director David Robertson, designer of Dealer Aide: Red Flags Rule and An F&I Manager's Guide to the Red Flags Rule, will walk you through the specific challenges faced by dealership personnel in the implementation of the tasks associated with the Red Flags Rule, slated for enforcement by the FTC beginning June 1, 2010. Learn the practical steps employees must take in protecting your dealership and consumers from identity theft without applying complex new processes or revamping existing dealership policies.

AFIP CERTIFICATION REVIEW & EXAM – Did you know that the average F&I manager executes more legally binding contracts in a year than the average lawyer – without the benefits of high-level legal training or a vigilant professional review board? AFIP Certified F&I professionals learn how to earn legally and ethically, decreasing the likelihood of getting their dealers sued, fined or featured in a media exposé. And at this NJCAR-exclusive training event, you'll take the test within hours of the review to ensure maximum retention. The review will cover both federal and New Jersey laws and you'll receive your materials within days of signing up so you can study prior to the seminar.

TOPICS INCLUDE

- ◆ Red Flags Rule Purpose and Standards.
- ◆ Effective Implementation of Red Flags Rule Policies.
- ◆ How to Create a Red Flags Rule Program.
- ◆ Federal Laws Relating to the Sale and Leasing of Vehicles and Aftermarket Products.
- ◆ State Laws Relating to the Sale and Leasing of Vehicles and Aftermarket Products.
